Introduction to Julliunite Poetry

Slapping humor in with poetry, in such a dastardly way is called writing a style of poetry named “Julliunite”. The jokes are crude at times, while others are more clean, but they are funny either way. I will show you the format for this style:

Before the start,
After the start,
Finish,
After the finish,

It's like if you went to a NASCAR race; first you buy your tickets. Then the race starts and hopefully you are watching. The race is over and someone must be declared the winner! Then all of you go home, because your favorite racer costs you your bet.

Poems will be served from this point on. Turn through the next pages.

I Smell It Then

I smelled it coming.
The stink was due soon.
It sounded off!
The room was then empty.

Smell

We visited Uranus

We started at the top.

We were deep inside.

We were holding our noses the whole time!

Rainbow

Not a cloud in sight.

The clouds then came out of nowhere!

The storm was over.

The rainbow was fabulous!

Boolio

Nothing was seen in that abandoned house.
A naked chick entered the building,
But she just couldn't see anything.
Although Boolio, the ghost, seen everything!

Nub

Before the rub-a-nub-nub
We started to chant.
Something went wrong...
We conjured some horny ghosts!

My Smile

You don't know my smile.
I looked at you and grinned.
It made you sweat.
God, that was fast!

Winder

A redneck friend of mine came to visit.

"Open the winder!", he said.

We were all hot until I opened the 'winder'.

The liquor tasted good!

Somfin' That Goes Boom

There was a redneck fireworks seller,
I asked him does any go, "BOOM".
"Something that goes boom"?,
Those fireworks were illegal in Kentucky.

Smelly Poop

I once wanted to know more about poop.
On the web I went, searching.
This site called smellypoop.com came up.
I learned more than I needed to know!

Snake

I once met a snake demon,
The worst enemy of a celestial like me!
I fought my way through,
But later, I was pooped out.

Celestial

I was a celestial otherkin,
The journey started with my awakening.
I had more power than ever before!
But I died a human, which freakin' sucks!

Climber

There once was a climber,
He climbed to the top of Mt. Everest.
Years later we found him,
He was frozen solid in his birthday suit!

Blackwidder

I was bit by a spider,
It was a blackwidder!
My teef fell out,
That's why I studder!

Baby Bump

Let's have a baby she said,
I have a baby bump she said!
The baby was delivered,
That's my boy!

Cracktastic

We needed to fix that crack in the ceiling.
We then went to work,
But then it collapsed...
We were screwed!

Gumption

Everyone in town was gone.

We went inside of an old ghost town hotel.

We ended up sleeping in one of the hotel beds.

We were ran out by ghosts!

Rainy Achy

I felt it coming.

It started to rain.

My knees started to ache.

No mistake that I'm getting old.

Facelift

My head was hurting,
So I smacked it.
It then got worse.
So much for that idea!

No Clue...At All

I've no clue,
Until I finally knew.
I found you in my house.
But not for long...

Julliunite

She was pregnant with The Jules.

He was born a few days early.

He grew up to be independent.

Now his legacy has ruined us all!
